

2012 HOME EXPO

Saturday, March 3, 2012
10:00 am - 4:00 pm
Russell County 4-H Building

Looking for a Few Good Customers?

Individuals from throughout central Kansas will discover fresh ideas for decorating, home financing, new construction, remodeling, landscaping and more at the 2012 Home Expo. The doors at the Russell County 4-H Building will open at 10:00 am March 3 and the 2012 Home Expo will continue through 4:00 pm.

We know you have valuable information to pass on to attendees! Please consider visually showcasing those products or services that are unique to your company...

OR

... Present a workshop or product demonstration! Twenty-minute sessions will be presented throughout the day in the west end of the 4-H Building.

To take advantage of this great opportunity, simply complete an Application For Booth Space on line (foradvantage.com/homeexpo) or mail in. When your check is received we will confirm by email or mail that you are in!

Expo Notes...

- The 2012 Home Expo will be advertised on local radio, in area newspapers, and cable channels to reach a maximum number of potential customers.
- A portion of your booth investment will be used for cash giveaways during the 2012 Home Expo. Individuals must be present to win.
- The Russell County News and KRSL radio have advertising packages available for 2012 Home Expo vendors - we will send this information with your confirmation packet.
- Concession stand will be available. Proceeds from the show will go to a non-profit.

Did you know?

Last year we had another record breaking year with over 650 customers through the doors! It was our biggest vendor and customer turn out since we started hosting shows in 2004. Start preparing now, to show off your products, services, and goods at our 2012 Home Show!
